Shalom, Peace

Welcome to the Aboriginal Republic of North America. By reclaiming your nationality, you are stepping into the sacred inheritance of your ancestors—restoring your birthright as an Indigenous, self-governing people of this land. You now join a living Nation rooted in Natural Law, ancestral covenant, and unified community. As a National, you are both a custodian of your family legacy and a builder of our collective future. We honor your courage, and we walk forward together in truth, dignity, and autonomy.

Nationality Documents

The nationality documents are vital because they officially record your lawful status as an Indigenous National of the Aboriginal Republic of North America (ARNA). These documents establish your identity, protect your rights under international and constitutional law, and affirm your political and spiritual allegiance to a self-governing Indigenous Nation. They serve as living proof of your autonomy, lineage, and commitment to preserving and advancing our ancestral legacy.

RITES OF PASSAGE

STEP BY STEP PROCESS

Welcome to your next phase of growth and responsibility as a National of the Aboriginal Republic of North America. Our Rites of Passage program is rooted in ancestral law and cultural restoration. It is designed to guide you through a sacred journey of self-discovery, national service, and alignment with your divine purpose. As you pass through each stage, you will gain the knowledge, discipline, and empowerment necessary to fulfill your role within your Nation, your family, and the global Indigenous community. This is more than a program—it is a return to your true self.

MEMORIZE

PREAMBLE

The Preamble affirms our identity as the original Indigenous Peoples and our Divine Right to self-governance. It unites us under Natural Law, guiding our path toward justice, prosperity, and global autonomy. It serves as both a declaration and a compass for our Nation's purpose.

DEFENSE & INTELLIGENCE

Defense and Intelligence safeguard our autonomy, protect our people, and preserve our ancestral wisdom. They uphold the peace, strength, and continuity of our Indigenous Nation.

GENERAL ORDERS

The General Orders provide the foundational duties and conduct for all officials and Nationals. They guide our actions with discipline, integrity, and alignment to our Nation's laws and sacred responsibilities.

Rites of Passage

The Rites of Passage are relevant because they mark the spiritual, cultural, and civic transformation of each National into full alignment with their ancestral identity and responsibilities. This sacred process helps restore Indigenous knowledge, instill discipline, and affirm one's role in the Nation, ensuring that each individual contributes meaningfully to our collective autonomy and future.

Our Vision and Mission

Our Vision

To restore and uphold the Divine Right of self-rule for all Aboriginal Indigenous Peoples of the Earth, building a unified, self-sustaining, and autonomy Nation rooted in ancestral wisdom, Natural Law, and international solidarity—where justice, autonomy, and cultural continuity thrive across generations.

Our Mission

Our mission is to protect, serve, and advance the Aboriginal Republic of North America by:

- Enforcing our General Orders with discipline and integrity;
- Preserving our sacred posts, people, and property;
- Upholding the highest moral, cultural, and legal standards rooted in Natural Law and ancestral tradition;
- Ensuring security, accountability, and vigilance across all domains of our Nation;
- Cultivating a nationhood where each National actively contributes to the defense, development, and destiny of our Indigenous future.
